Mission Statement

R Wild Horse Ranch provides a unique opportunity to own a 14,080 acre recreational property that offers exciting adventures and family entertainment in a ranch environment, where you can create lasting memories and friendships.

In order to achieve the above for all of our owners, we have established rules to govern ourselves. These Rules and Regulations help protect the financial and physical resources of the Ranch and limit R-Ranch legal liabilities, while protecting individual owners' security and enjoyment. We have published these rules in the following pages and request that all owners observe and follow them so we may all enjoy our time at the Ranch.

If you feel there is something that the Board of Directors should address, please contact them at: rwhrdirectors@rwildhorseranch.net.

I. Group Use Policies

A “group” is defined as 7 or more guests visiting with an Owner on the Ranch on the same day or night.

1. The WHOA Office requires that all group reservations be requested at least 6 weeks prior to the arrival date and must be confirmed with deposit by the WHOA Office 30 days prior to arrival date. The Ranch Manager is the final authority on the number of group guests on the Ranch at any one time.
2. Groups will be subject to the normal guest rates. (Unless authorized in advance by ranch management).
3. During the summer season (Memorial Day through Labor Day weekends) groups will only be allowed from Monday through Thursday. During the off-season (after Labor Day weekend to Memorial Day weekend) groups will be allowed seven days a week (with the exception to Thanksgiving) Host Owners of groups must notify the Stables and the Snack Bar (if open) at least 2 weeks in advance if their group desires to use these facilities.
4. Upper Lodge/Kitchen use: Owners may reserve the Kitchen area for special group events. Utilization of this area must be coordinated with the Ranch Manager four weeks ahead of the desired date. Please see WHOA office for agreement and cleaning checklist at time of rental. A non-refundable fee per day will be charged for the use of this area, which must be left clean and neat by the reserving Owner upon completion of the function (Note: The Upper Lodge and Motel area is an adult only area, therefore, if there are children under the age of 18, they must remain within the lodge during meals. Also, please remember that other Owners will be able to use the lodge, even though you have reserved the Kitchen.)
5. R-Wild Horse Ranch was created primarily for the Owner’s enjoyment. Should the facility become overcrowded due to the excessive use of guest privileges, further limitations on the number of guests using the Ranch may have to be imposed.

SECTION IV CABINS/MOTEL

- E. Reservations may be made either in person, by e-mail, or by a phone call directly to the WHOA Office. Reservations must be made ONLY by Owners or Designated Users. Your owner number must always be given with your reservations.
- F. All accommodations are subject to prior reservations. Each Owner has equal right to these facilities; therefore, reservations must be accepted on a "FIRST IN" priority basis.
- G. Subject to availability, Owners may reserve more than one cabin/motel or use more than one RV site/campsite for overnight group use. There will be a per night charge for each extra cabin; per night charge for each extra motel room for Owners; per night charge for each extra motel room for guests; and per night for each extra RV site, (guest is dry camp only), per share. All fees will be in accordance with the Master Fee Schedule.

- K. All owners and guests are required to check in & out with Security upon arrival & departure.
- L. Please see additional posted rules inside cabins.

SECTION V CAMPGROUNDS

- A. The selection of campsites/RV sites is on a “first come, first serve” basis. There is no saving of spaces. If a trailer is in need of repair, an owner can hold a R.V. spot for 72 hours while the trailer is in for repair. After 72 hours the owner needs to clear their spot for other owners use.
- B. Full hookup RV spaces will only be available to owners. Guests bringing RVs will have dry camping spaces to choose from. Guests will be charged a fee, per day, for the site they use in addition to all other applicable fees (see Master Fee Schedule). If guest are using the campsite with owner, they must dry camp or run a generator for power. R Ranch's electrical cannot support additional trailers running A/C's.
- C. Certain RV/Cabin sites may only be available to owners on a short visit. Request these site numbers from Security. A short visit applies to owners who are not keeping their RVs on site longer than the time they are visiting the ranch. Owners using these sites may only stay on these sites for up to 14 days. The owners using these sites may not leave for longer than day trips to the surrounding areas. The Ranch Manager may open up these sites for longer stays if long term sites are in short supply.
- D. An owner and their guest may occupy only one RV site per visit. Upon arrival, if additional campsites are available, they may be assigned. Owners having more than one share may use one RV site (or cabin) per share.
- E. Owners and their guests may occupy a campsite/RV site for a period of 30 days per visit. An absence of 7 days is required between each 30 day visit. R-Wild Horse Ranch is not designed for permanent residents but for periodic recreational enjoyment. Only one RV may be connected to the ranch power supply and sewer connection per campsite. Owners may connect an additional trailer provided that they do not overload the circuit. Owners will be responsible for any damages resulting from overloading electrical circuits. Secondly powered equipment, such as generators, shall not be left plugged in while the owner or designated user is not on site. Guest RV's on site must be removed when the guest leaves.
- F. All recreational vehicles must be registered with Security at the main gate when checking in. The share number must be clearly mounted on front of the RV and visible from the outside. All recreation vehicles must be currently registered with the State Department of Motor Vehicles and the registered owner's name must match the share number.

- G. Owners must notify Security of the campsite/RV site they occupy within (2) two hours of setting up camp.
- H. Owners must pay the $60 electricity fee when moving into the RV spot. If owners are not present when their RV is moved on, the owner has 14 days to pay the $60 electricity fee. If the owner does not leave RV plugged in when not on ranch, they do not have to pay the electricity fee.
- I. RV repair contractors: Owners can have insured RV repair contractors come to the Ranch and work on their RV's without the owners being present. If the contractor does not have the insurance requirements (call WHOA for specifics) they will not be allowed on ranch for liability reasons.

- 1. When Owners are not physically present on the Ranch (except for day trips to the surrounding area) electricity must be disconnected from their RV. Owners may keep the electricity connected to their RV for a monthly fee. There is no proration of fees. Electricity fees should be paid at Security (Main Gate). (See Master Fee Schedule.)
- 2. When an RV initially comes onto the ranch to start its stay, the first night's stay does count toward the first 30-day stay requirement.
 - a. You must spend two nights on the ranch in your RV per 30-day period to receive an extension during the summer season (May 1st - Sept. 30th) and one night per 30 day period during the winter season (Oct. 1st - April 30th). An owner must meet the overnight stay requirement in each individual period; multiple nights spent in one period do not count towards the next or prior 30-day period. If you are unable to make it to the Ranch to move, please call Security at 530-352-4486.
 - b. After you have fulfilled the stay requirement for the first 30-day period you must take your tag to security to get a new tag that will extend your stay for the next 30-day period - to day number 60. You do not have to wait until the end of the first 30-day period to receive the new extension tag to day 60.
 - c. Between days 30 and 60, after you have fulfilled the overnight stay requirement on the new tag renewal, take the new tag to security and have it updated with a new 30-day extension tag that will carry you through to the end of your current stay, and day 90, on the ranch. You do not have to wait until the end of the second 30-day period to receive the new extension tag to day 90. Between day 60 and day 90, you must continue to fulfill your seasonal overnight stay requirement to avoid penalties. Owners who do not meet the stay requirement for the last 30-day period may not return an RV to the ranch until 7 days after they have removed their RV from the ranch.

- d. After a 90-day stay, your RV must be removed from the ranch for 7 nights before returning to the ranch (except for Dual Share owners who comply with the Dual share ownership requirements). Failure to move trailer will result in fines of up to $25 every for 72 hours for the first 30 days, then $50 every 72 hours.
 - e. When moving off the site, all personal belongings must come off the site as well. Switching sites and leaving personal belongings on site is not allowed. This includes tents, trailers etc that belong to other owners. If there are items left on the RV site, the owner who occupied that sight is not considered off site until all items are removed. Owner will be subject to late fees. (See section D above)
 - f. RVs (not owners) may occupy a site for up to 90 days at a time (if the owner follows the 30-60-90 policy). The RV must then be removed from the ranch placed in the storage area for a 7 day period. When the R.V. is placed back on site, it may not be placed back in the same site. It is the Owner's responsibility to ensure that the RV is moved in a timely manner.
 - g. Owners must utilize the trailer while on site. Having an Associate Owners, or guest staying in trailer to avoid owner staying in trailer, does not count towards fulfilling trailer policy.
 - h. Owners that have multiple shares may move their trailers to another space at the end of their 90 days without a 7-day break.
3. If an RV is left on the same site for over the authorized limit a charge of $25.00 for every 72hrs for the first 30 days shall be assessed. After which a $50.00 charge for every 72hrs will be assessed to the Owner until the RV is removed. Each day beyond the end date is considered a new violation as per Article VIII of the By-Laws. After 60 days, the association may remove the RV from the site at the risk of and cost to the owner in violation. (As per CC&R Declaration 4(h)).
 4. Owners may have a contractor or someone else move their RV onto a site up to 48 hours prior to their arrival to the ranch. Contractors who work on the association's property must provide proof of insurance and list R Wild Horse Ranch Owner's Association as an additional insured. Contractors who fail to meet this requirement will not be allowed to perform work on the ranch. *If there is no owner arrival within the 48 hours a fine of $50.00 will be assessed.
 5. State and County Health regulations prohibit dumping of ANY waste water on campgrounds. Sewer connections in the "A" and "B" areas are provided and dump stations are provided in the "C" area for disposal of all waste water.

6. Quiet hours in the cabin/motel/ RV/ and campground areas must be observed from 10 pm to 9 am for the mutual enjoyment of everyone. Those who wish to “party” later than 10 pm should see the Ranch Manager for the designated “party areas” on the Ranch (Note: this would be solely at the discretion of the Ranch Manager Example: the exception to this would be if there were Owners staying in the designated “party area,” which is the “C” area.)
7. In consideration of your neighbors, RV owners with generators will not operate their generators between the hours of 10 pm and 9 am. The only exception to this rule is if the power is out.
8. All Owners and guests are required to check in & out at Security upon arrival & departure.
9. When owners are not on the ranch, they may leave two additional trailer and/or tents provided that these additional items do not impede on neighboring sites. This makes the total amount allowed = three (3) including the RV. All owners’ personal belongings must be setback three feet of the neighbors’ electrical pedestal Note: not all R.V. sites are the same size so please be considerate to your neighbors.
10. Please keep your sites clean and organized. Do not create an eyesore. Examples of eyesores are: trash, broken down ATVs and vehicles, cluttered and unorganized campsites. All owners are expected to leave the ranch with a clean and organized site. Clean and organized is defined as: All miscellaneous items must be covered or out of sight. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action.
11. All tents left setup on site must be complete and free of any major tears.
12. If you are occupying a Cabin/RV combo: your area will stop 2 feet from the cabin next to you.
